Dear IAIP Friends, Colleagues, Board members

We, the undersigned Hungarian Association of Individual Psychology are very pleased to report that the Routledge Publ. U.K/US.-- famous in editing high standard new, original psychological literature expressed their willingness to publish the book

Psychodrama with Children: Healing children through their own creativity in 2016 written by the beloved, versatile tutor-instructor-doyen of the Hungarian individual psychologists and child psychodramatists

Hanna Kende

In this way, new chances will be opened for widespreading an IP aspected new group technique for healing handicapped children worldwide, who are in strong need of psychological help.

The Kende Hanna method of Child Psychodrama is well known in Hungary, in the bordering countries, in Italy and France and many training- and therapy groups are in operation.

This opportunity makes the spirituality and practice of IP Child Psychodrama hopefully acquainted not only in the U.K., but in the immense English speaking world not only attracting and gaining interested and skilled colleagues for the method but possibilities will be opened for starting beginning training groups as well. English speaking „Child psychodrama” training courses are planned starting from 2017 in Budapest
